STATINTL

Dear Helen:

As I mentioned to you on the telephone the other day, it would be a real honor and a pleasure if you could come in to my office and permit me to present to you the CIA Distinguished Intelligence Medal which has been posthumously awarded to [redacted] for his great and lasting contributions in the field of intelligence.

STAT

Unless it proves to be inconvenient for you, I have arranged the ceremony for 12:00 noon on Thursday, August 7th. [redacted] whom you know, will plan to pick you up at your home about 11:45 A.M. and bring you to my office and will see that you have transportation to whatever destination you may desire at the conclusion of the presentation.

STATINTL

Please don't hesitate to let me know if any of these arrangements are inconvenient.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
